"At the Ball Game"

Sportlet S By Tim

Let's see, didn't Stanley say something about knocking the nigger's block off? Well it's all over now, so it doesn't matter.

Awful! Jeffries has a ball on his neck! Shades of yea Roman gladiators will it break?

A child could lick Jeff now with that ball. There is nothing so tender as a ball, unless it's a priest's fingers heart.

First a cramp, next bad blood, now a ball. What next—an ingrown toenail?

West Point shut out Yale at the academy diamond Wednesday. It was 3 runs that did it.

Manager Hugh Duffy excuses his Soxers from Sunday morning practice so that they may attend church. But do they?

It took three pitchers for Wichita to win from Lincoln Wednesday. And then only 10 and 9. Such a game!

Three horses ran a lovely three cornered duel in the second event at Pimlico Wednesday.

Five runs in the eighth won for Oakland against Vernon at San Francisco Wednesday. It ended 8 to 4.

Topeka called on three pitchers Wednesday and Des Moines out batted all of them. It was a balloon contest.

Eddie McGorty, the Oshkosh middleweight, just returned from England, has signed to meet Hugo Kelly of Chicago at Milwaukee May 7. They will go 10 rounds without decision.

By a one run shutout Chicago defeated Pittsburgh Wednesday. McIntyre pegged good ball. Pitcher Reulbach has reported to Chicago after an illness.

Raleigh won the Pleasanton handicap over a field of good gallopers at Emeryville Wednesday. Raleigh is a comer.

Two pitchers failed to turn the tables for Sacramento against Los Angeles Wednesday.

Owing to the fact that Harvard has arranged an interscholastic meet for May 21, the Yale interscholastic meet has been changed to May 14.

World's pool honors were retained Wednesday night by Jerome Krogh of Rochester who defeated Clarence Safford of Chicago at Rochester. The final block was ended with a total score of 600 to 492. Safford went to pieces at the finish.

Andy Hall Wednesday night rolled 725 in the individual event of the Illinois Bowling association meet. It is a bid for the world's honors. Hall was state champion in 1904.

President Taft played a game of golf the other day on Chevy Chase course in Washington when it was pouring rain and everybody else but the Taft party had taken refuge in the clubhouse. When he came in from the game he took off his clothes, put on dry ones and went back to the white house feeling fine, he declared; he didn't say "bully."

Mrs. Arthur Conklin has filed a suit for divorce in New York against Arthur—whoever he is—alleging that he left her at home ill and went to baseball games, which shows that baseball had its bad side as well as its good ones and that Benjamin is not the only fan in need of a governor.

Ad. Wolgast is sore on stage life. He wants to fight again. Why doesn't he go to work?

Portland retained hold on first place in the Coast League Wednesday by defeating San Francisco 3 and 1. It was a pretty game.

The St. Louis-Cincinnati game was postponed.

The preliminary tie match between the British Isles and America will be decided at Wimbledon, London, or in Australia. What's the matter with Vletia?

Tony Smith made a home run in the ninth at Boston Wednesday and that saved Brooklyn from a shut out. It ended 5 and 1.

The winning streak of the Phillies was broken at the seven straight point Wednesday. New York did it, 3 and 2.

Cloon Webb, a Pittsburgh pitcher, is said to have a jump ball. Also, Webb has the jumps himself.

Archie should know for he is credited with having a jump ball himself.

Cleveland won its first home game of the season Wednesday, and the Cleveland fans are happy. They defeated Chicago, 3 and 2, the winning run being scored in the ninth.

An error in the ninth saved St. Louis City from a shutout with St. Joseph Wednesday. Joe Town made 8 runs against the visitors' one.

Kid Ash has returned to Cincinnati after cleaning up Canada. He walloped Kid Clarke and Billy Launder. Just as he was to be matched with Topy Caponi, Kid got homesick and blew.

In a game marked by poor fielding, Detroit won from St. Louis Wednesday. There were many errors for Louis boys and wild baserunning for the visitors.

"The first clutch will settle the Johnson-Jeffries fight," says Joe Chynski and Tommy Ryan. Poo, poo! Dope!

BUNCH OF BASEBALL NOTES FROM CANANEA

Stuart Is Set to Soliloquize—Will Cactus League Be Outlawed?

Cananea, Sonora, Mexico, April 28.—W. P. Stuart, the 33d degree fan and official scorer, soliloquizes as follows:

"So, diminutive Jack Go-hany has characterized his entrance into the Cactus league by reversing his first momentous decision. The writer took Jack away up in an unfilled corner of the grandstand, far from the maddening crowd's ignoble jar, and wrote that nomenclature in the score book, letter by letter, while the bearer of it slowly spelled it out. It's rather humiliating for a fellow to gloat over all rivals, secure in the belief that he has a 'beat,' a snug bunch of information that no other scribe can hope for; then to fall down before a multitude for failing to touch the bases in order. The downfall is not complete though, for recent advice from the redoubtable 'umps' himself, admit that, in spelling the name in Spanish, the 't' always precedes the 'c.' Jack was in Mexico and gave out his name according to strict Mexican standards. If Jack imagines for a fleeting second that he can alienate those who admire him by peddling out confusing 'dope' as to the orthography of his name, he's leading toward a blocked trail; for he's the happiest little fellow, and the best that ever told a 'bonehead' balter to go away back and shut up."

Bob Whaling has been shifted from right field to first base, Guyrup taking charge of the sun-garden. Whaling played first for Shreveport all last year and was drafted by the Cardinals at the season's close. Guyrup's heavy hitting will keep him on the team.

Baroldy, the left fielder, has gone to his home in Solomonsville to recuperate from a slight attack of fever.

From reliable information, it is learned that the powers of organized ball intend to outlaw all players in the Cactus circuit before the first of June.

Dillon, of the Los Angeles Angels, has wired Dugan that he would like to have the privilege of sending some of his benchmen to Cananea, should any weak spots develop in the local team.

In outfielder Frank Hodges, Cananea claims to have the fastest outfielder in the southwest. He is working here, and will not play with the Pirates or whatever they are.

How would "El Paso Texans" do for Harbuck's bunch of huskies?

Happy Harbuck and his huskies have decided to hike for Cananea.

El Paso hopes the boys from this city will not be taken into camp by the Miners.

Stanley Gray. The name sounds well, anyway, and there are some others coming.

El Paso Champions 1910. That sounds well, let us have it.

Cactus, cacti, cactum; sounds like the tale of the Englishman, but it is simply the conjugation of the new league name.

The gates at Washington park are closed, never to be opened until a cyclone strikes the fence. Let us pray for a cyclone.

Since Benjamin has nominated Harbuck for mayor, Whitney Hewitt says he wants to be city clerk.

Bisbee's Bunters are to trip the light fantastic sans spikes.

While the campaign is on to save the babies, the fans want Harbuck to save a few grownups for the El Paso pitching staff.

Talking About Real Clothes

Clothes that are as certain to wear as if you were an experienced weaver and manufacturer and had yourself superintended the milling of the fabrics and the making—

Clothes that cannot but impress young men—Do you know where to locate them?

We'll tell you—

But first—do you know that every yard of cloth used in the product of Globe Tailoring Co. is machine and hand tested—that sturdiness vies with pattern and steadfast colors?

Do you know that you cannot purchase garments as strong and as good and as smartly styled as these from any other manufacturer at prices the same as ours? Don't you want to see the sort of men's suits that we sell at from $18.00 to $50.00.

NOW JEFF HAS A BOIL ON HIS NECK.

There Is Awful Consternation in the Ben Lomond Camp About It.

Ben Lomond, Cal., April 28.—Jeffries has a boil, and worse yet, it is located on his neck. Today the camp is steeped in worry. It is terrible! There was no boxing yesterday. Jeff only took a jog of ten miles down the pike, and did a bit of rope skipping. It is feared that an old trouble, which caused the postponement of the Monroe match, is again to attack the heavyweight.

Think of it—a boil on the neck! Awful!

Jeff Is Peevish. Jeffries had the offending boil lanced last night and the big fellow, who has been as peevish as a boy under his enforced let up of training, will soon be able to resume his work. This morning he walked ran 10 miles and then went into the gymnasium, where he worked with the medicine ball and pulley weights until the perspiration streamed from him.

But Jeffries is anxious to begin boxing with Joe Choynski, who yesterday sparred several fast rounds with Billy Papke. The latter is training for his fight with Joe Thomas and Jeffries growled and grumbled and even said he watched Choynski and Papke slam into each other.

JOHNSON IS PEEVED OVER TRAINING TALK

Says He Has More to Lose Than the People Criticizing Him.

San Francisco, Cal., April 28.—Jack Johnson said last night that he would begin training for his fight with Jeffries the middle of next week. The negro champion declared, however, that he will take things easy until about May 15. Johnson apparently is vexed over the many queries relative to his training plans.

"Why are the people so concerned about the time I am going to commence training?" he demanded. "I have more to lose than the people who are watching me and will be on the work when condition for any of my California fights, have I? Well, rest assured that I am not going to be out of shape for this one."

Johnson emphatically denied the reports that he is out of condition or has been dissipating.

A touch of rheumatism or a twinge of neuralgia, whatever the trouble is, Chamberlain's Liniment drives away the pain at once and cures the complaint quickly. First application gives relief. Sold by all dealers.

Bingles and Bunts By CAB

Stealing a base is not a crime, according to a recent decision handed down by baseball fan judge Albert S. J. Fylar.

El Paso now has a baseball diamond that scintillates, compared with some of the others in the Cactus country.

Nothing shakier about that guardian of the left field, even if it does sound that way.

She lost her heart at first base, she made a hit to short, she was too fly for second, but at third she won a home. Who? Why Miss Baseballitis.

Muzzling dogs and muzzling umpires in hot weather is for a different purpose. The dog is muzzled to protect men, the umpire is caged to—oh, well, he must have some protection.

The only hot air about Merritt is that in his chest protector.

Wyley carries a parachute so he won't stay up in the air if he happens to get there.

Baseball even in the heavens—the comet is there.
